Trump is doing a lot of good things. Keeping promises and kicking ass. (Below) is an article showing the positive actions he is taking in his first week back in office.

Should these actions be considered wins on the side of the US, liberty and the American way?. Yes, of course, obviously.

Will they blind the masses to any other areas of his actions that are not positive for the US, liberty and the American way?. Probably. That is why we are watching all actions with scrutiny.

Scrutiny

scru•ti•n | 'skrootane noun (plural scrutinies) critical observation or examination

No Politician Should Be Blindly Trusted

If they are doing good things, they should welcome observation and critical thinking regarding their actions. If they are not, but their intentions are good, they can benefit from having their actions scrutinized with critical thinking, which can keep them on the right track. If their intentions are not good; they know the truth and will try to hide it and not welcome such critical observation.

So we scrutinize.

The Good Cop Bad Cop Scenario

Consider the possibility of Biden's residency being a set up for Trumps. Biden creates obvious problems, where Trump can swoop in and fix them all in "One Week! ".

Fix it all in 1 Week! | Movie, Idiocracy

Could it be that the cabal have provided a good cop - bad cop scenario?. This is my suspicion and has been all along. So far Trumps actions both positive and negative are not persuading otherwise.

We had the bad cop of Joe Biden who purposefully and quite obviously destroyed the U.S. Now we have a saviour in Trump. It's the good cop's turn.

The danger is when many are bamboozled by the good cop concept portrayed, Trump could very easily usher in exactly what the cabal want. AI mRNA vaccines on day 2 for example.

MAGA finding out they're getting a $500Billion New World Order A.I totalitarian monitoring beast system & mRNA cancer vaccines when all they wanted was cheaper gas & food.

Let us remember in the analogy used above that both the good cop and bad cop are cops. They both work for the same people. They are just playing a role on both sides to further the employers agenda.

We see the positive side of Trumps actions. They are obvious. Too obvious perhaps. They are no brainers. None of this shit from Biden's term should have come to pass. So fixing these things is obvious.

Yes these positive changes are needed. He is writing several obvious wrongs. Giving people what they want. Long may it last. Just don't allow him to give us anything we don't want.

Be mindful of what is going on in the background at the big show.

It seems like a four-year nightmare has come to an end. But Trump is a Mossad agent. He is enlisting the rubes for world war 3. The price of a modicum of national independence and freedom is support for Zionist genocide and expansion.

Trump is Keeping His Promises

Donald Trump has accomplished more in six days than the impostor Joe Biden did in four years. In only his first week back, Trump has pardoned the January 6 hostages, and moved the homeless North Carolina flood victims into furnished apartments (they were sleeping in tents on the frozen snow-covered ground for months, completely ignored by the fake Biden administration).

Trump has declassified the JFK and RFK assassination files, and fired woke DEI federal employees. He has removed security clearances and, in some cases, Secret Service protection from government traitors. Some say former National Security Advisor John Bolton has been arrested and sent to Gitmo.

Trump has started arresting and deporting illegal aliens, some of them murderers and rapists. The ICE agents conducting the arrests have the names, rap sheets, and home addresses of all these criminals. The governors of the states that those criminals reside in, along with the mayors of their cities also have that information, yet for years they did NOTHING. Trump began arresting them on his first day back.

Meanwhile, thousands of illegal aliens have begun self-deporting. (I told you they would.) Next stop for ICE is Los Angeles. Trump has ordered 10,000 troops to secure the southern border. Ain't nobody coming in now.

Trump has eliminated the White House Office of Gun Control. Trump has withdrawn the country from the World Health Organization (the average dumbass American has no idea how big that is - it's HUGE). He's saved TikTok, and revitalized the career of the Village People

WATCH: Village People performs 'YMCA' at Trump rally on eve of Inauguratio...

Trump has begun closing the coffin on woke tranny nonsense, declaring that the United States will only recognize two genders - male and female - and he has ordered the country's embassies to cease flying that faggot rainbow flag.

Trump's border czar, Tom Homan, has located 80,000 missing migrant children. This after Alejandro Mayorkas lied and said they could never be found.

Trump has begun taking the necessary steps to secure Greenland and the Panama Canal. Soon he'll be negotiating an end to the Russia/Ukraine war. He's already put a stop on foreign aid to the Ukraine. Trump has accomplished all this and much, much more. And In only six days! Are you tired of winning?

As for fake Joe's fake pardons, they were just that - fake. He's nothing but an impostor (the real Joe Biden is long dead) and his entire administration was as phony as he was. Therefore, his "pardons" have no standing. None of them are valid. Pour yourself a glass and drink a toast to Trump's first week back. Granted, we still have a long, long way to go. But this is a most auspicious start. Far better than most were expecting or hoping for.

"The majority of fat, dumb Americans are not going to change no matter what Trump accomplishes. But at least his actions have given people hope. After four long years of Marxist-spouting hate from leftist losers and delusional retards, it's nice to see a little sunshine for a change."
